

2018 UDALL SCHOLARSHIP CAMPUS APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

The Udall Scholarship, which will provide up to $7,000 for the 2018-2019 academic year, was established in 1992 to honor Congressman Morris K. Udall and Stewart L. Udall and their legacy of public service.

START EARLY; CAREFULLY READ the Bulletin of Information and Nomination Materials on the Udall website: <http://www.udall.gov/OurPrograms/Scholarship/Scholarship.aspx>

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS:

To apply, you must:

Fall into ONE of the following categories:

1) students with outstanding potential who study the environment and related fields;
OR

2) Native American or Alaska Native students with outstanding potential who are in fields related to health care or tribal public policy.

Be a currently enrolled and continuing sophomore or junior. Note: This means you must be a second or third year student; first year students who have sophomore standing due to advanced units are not eligible.

Have a minimum 3.0 GPA.

Be a United States citizen, permanent resident alien, or United States national from American Samoa or the Commonwealth of the Mariana Islands.

APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS:

Applicants must be nominated by UCLA's Udall Scholarships Committee to be considered by the Udall Foundation. The February 2, 2018 deadline allows the campus committee to carefully review applications and select nominees before the Udall Foundation's deadline.

To apply for a University nomination, you must submit the following:

You must contact the UCLA Scholarship Resource Center to express your intention to apply for the scholarship. Please email rblustein@college.ucla.edu (or call 310-206-2875 between 11:00am and 6:00pm only). Once you have made contact with the UCLA Udall representative, you will have access to the official online Udall application at the Udall <http://www.udall.gov/OurPrograms/Scholarship/Apply.aspx>

You are required to complete the entire online application. You must print out your application and submit it with your transcript by the deadline of February 2, 2018.

The application consists of:

1. An application form

2. If you are nominated by UCLA, you will be asked to write an essay discussing a significant public speech, legislative act, book, or public policy statement by Congressman Morris K. Udall or Secretary of Interior Stewart L. Udall. In one or two sentences, please indicate which speech, legislative act, book, or public policy statement you would choose. You are NOT required to write the essay at this point.

- A current unofficial college transcript and transcripts for other colleges attended. Official transcripts will be required if you are selected as the UCLA Udall Scholarship nominee.
- One to two letters of recommendation. Note: a third letter of recommendation will be required if you are selected as the UCLA Udall Scholarship nominee.

START EARLY; CAREFULLY READ the Bulletin of Information and Nomination Materials on the Udall website.

APPLICATION DEADLINE: February 2, 2018